The charge for letters to British Possessions generally, the United States, British Postal Agencies in China and Morocco, and H.M. Ships of War serving abroad is 1d. the ounce.

To all other places $2\frac{1}{2}$ d. for the first ounce, and $1\frac{1}{2}$ d. for each additional ounce.

POST CARDS—Single, 1d.; Reply, 2d.

DESPATCH OF LETTERS BY TELEPHONE.

Telephone Subscribers can in many cases telephone messages to a Post Office to be sent either (1) as an express letter, at the usual express delivery fee for each 30 words or part thereof, or (2) as an ordinary letter, at the ordinary letter rate for each 30 words or part thereof.

In each case the usual charge for a telephone call is made in addition.

A telephone subscriber can also obtain the services of an express messenger by telephoning to the nearest Post Office connected with his Exchange.

NIGHT TELEGRAPH LETTER SERVICE.

Night Telegraph Letters may be sent between any two towns in which the Head Telegraph Offices are open all night, for delivery by post next morning—including Sundays if there is a Sunday delivery. The charge is 9d. for 36 words or less, and 1d. for every three words beyond 36. Such letters may be handed in or telephoned to the Head Office before midnight or be posted in time to reach it by midnight in an envelope marked "Telegraph Letter." The letters should be written on telegraph forms, and the charge prepaid in postage stamps. They must be in plain language, and the use of multiple addresses or registered telegraphic addresses is not permitted.

RECEIPT AND DESPATCH OF TELEGRAMS BY TELEPHONE.

Telegrams can be dictated to a Telegraph Office by telephone subscribers over their exchange lines, and by the general public from Call Offices at which trunk calls are accepted. The ordinary charge for a telephone call is payable in addition to the usual telegram charges.

Arrangements can usually be made, if desired, for telephone subscribers to receive their telegrams by telephone. Telephonic addresses, e.g., Jones Stafford 245, may be used for telegrams for delivery by telephone. Confirmatory copies of telegrams so delivered are sent by post free of charge.

REDUCED EXTRA EUROPEAN TELEGRAPH RATES.

Telegrams in plain language known as deferred telegrams can be sent at half rates (with few exceptions) to British Extra European Dominions and to a number of foreign countries outside Europe. Week-end telegrams, called cable letters, can be sent on Saturday for delivery on the following Monday in North America, and as far as possible on the following Monday in Australia and New Zealand.
